

The Effectiveness of Aid for Development

December, 12-13, 2011
Institute for Economic Analysis (CSIC, BGSE)
Barcelona

Program

December 12th

- 9:15– Welcome address
- 9:30– Fiscal composition and aid-effectiveness: a political-economy model
Paul Mosley (U. of Sheffield )
Discussant: Humberto Llavador (U. Pompeu Fabra, BGSE)
- 10:30– Aid Allocation Rules for Ramsey Economies
Paddy Carter (U. of Bristol)
Discussant: Omar Licandro (Inst. for Economic Analysis, CSIC, BGSE)
- 11:30– Coffee break
- 12:00– Does Foreign Aid Increase Foreign Direct Investment?
Pablo Selaya (U. of Copenhagen)
Discussant: Calin Arcalean (ESADE)
- 13:00– Lunch
- 15:00– Aid effectiveness in the education sector: quantity vs. quality
Luis Angeles (Centre for Development Studies, U. of Glasgow )
Discussant: Ada Ferrer (Inst. for Economic Analysis, CSIC, BGSE)
- 16:00– Aiding Conflict: The Consequences of U.S. Food Aid on Conflict
Nancy Qian (Yale U.)
Discussant: Laura Mayoral (Inst. for Economic Analysis, CSIC, BGSE)
- 20:30– Dinner

December 13th

- 9:30– The costs of favoritism: Is politically-driven aid less effective?
Axel Dreher (U. of Heidelberg )
Discussant: Hannes Mueller (Inst. for Economic Analysis, CSIC, BGSE)
- 10:30– Insurance and Investment within Family Networks
Manuela Angelucci (U. of Michigan)
Discussant: Francesco Fasani (Inst. for Economic Analysis, CSIC, BGSE)
- 11:30– Coffee break
- 12:00– Assessing the contribution of donor agencies to aid effectiveness
Christopher Kilby (Villanova U.)
Discussant: Jesús Fernández-Huertas (FEDEA)
- 13:00– Lunch

Organizers: Roberto Burguet and Marcelo Soto